BLUFFTON COLLEGE
BLUFFTON,
OHIO

Eyelids—drooping from the early morning Civ test preparation or mid-night gab session; faces—smiling at the A on a Communication report or puzzled over a math problem; voices—cheering a Beaver team to victory, or whispering across a table in the library; ears—listening to the unseen Chapel speaker "ocross the way," or for "him" to buzz those two "shorts" and two "longs"; hands—cramped from the mony hours spent writing a term paper, or "extra-clean" after washing the endless stacks of dishes of the evening meal; feet—sporting well-worn tennis shoes, weary from standing in line for books or lunch, or treading up the groaning steps to the ort studio; students—clad in Bluffton College sweatshirts or Varsity B. jackets, eating breakfast in a "half-awake" amosphere or making the familiar trip to the library; students—wearing work clothes for a day of cleaning up the campus, or dressed in their very finest for that special banquet; students—moking music that echoes throughout Mosiman Hall, or presenting a dramatic praduction which gives people an opportunity to laugh or mokes them stop and think . . . these are the sights and sounds of Bluffton Callege. They all make up, in part, that moin ingredient which is indispensable in a recipe for college life—PEOPLE. Big people; small people; happy people; sad people; laughing, crying, cheering people; unusual, sophisticated, or "just plain" people. It is an impression of these people that this yearbook attempts to create. It is hoped that the pages will reflect an overall view of Bluffton College, with a close-up picture of its people.

AFRICAN STUDENTS' CONFERENCE

An attempt to aid international understanding was made November 24-27, when over 40 students, representing 12 African nations, and studying in 15 U.S. colleges and universities met on the Bluffton campus.

Visiting speakers included Dr. Frank Wilson, former dean of religion at Howard University; Dr. Gordon Schull, professor of political science at the college of Wooster; the First Secretaries of the Ghana and Nigerian embassies; and a representative of the League of Women Voters on UNESCO.

Students and speakers discussed such concerns as colonialism and nationalism in Africa; unity of African States; Africa's problems in political, economic, and educational development; and Africa's role in the world power struggle.

The entire Bluffton community benefitted from the conference as it played host to the students by feeding and entertaining them in its homes.

The pictures show Dr. Kreider and Dr. Raid discussing some of the problems with members of two panels.

Students attend a daily Chapel service.

Mr. Shenk leads a discussion at Student Fellowship, held Sunday evenings.

A Communion service was held during the final meeting of Christian Life Week.

WBCR

"The Voice of Bluffton College"

Education and entertainment for the college and surrounding community were emphasized by the radio station this year. A great deal of interest was shown by students. The staff numbered approximately 42. Serving as advisor was Mrs. Purves.

Helping to make WBCR a success this year was a portion of the 1960 Work-Day money. Part of the new equipment was purchased with this share. A much improved all-over program also contributed to making WBCR truly "The Voice of BC."

At the console is Sharon Moore, who served as chief engineer. Other officers, STANDING: Marji Hazen, special events; Carolyn Sauder, publicity; Sally VonGunten, Sec.-Treas.; Roy Williams, station manager.

Swamped by pictures, problems, and more pictures are: Mr. Luginbuhl, Advisor; Mike Nussbaum, Business Manager; Barb Lehman, Editor; Judy Heckel, Assistant Editor. The many hours spent planning the pages, the late nights putting them together, and Saturday noon trips to the post office are just considered "part of the job." This year's staff had the able assistance of publishers, Edwards Brothers, Inc.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

This year the A Cappella Choir was privileged in using the facilities of the new Mosiman Hall for its rehearsals. Each rehearsal hour seemed important because of the large number of singing engagements.

Included in its activities this year were singing for Homecoming, Bible Lecture Week, Vespers, the Christmas Program, participation in the Messiah, rendition of the Seven Last Words, the weekend tour to Wayne County, the Eastern Pennsylvania tour, and numerous concerts in the local churches.

This again was a year of many enjoyable and varied experiences in singing. Those helping to organize its activities, along with Mr. Earl Lehman, were Gary Lora, Pres.; Ann Stauffer, V. Pres.; Eileen Schultz, Sec.; Dwight Lehman, Treas.; James Hahn, Business Manager.

CHORALIERS

The Choraliers were directed by Miss Martens this year. They gave a program in chapel and took part in the Spring Concert. Officers were: Tom Kirchhofer, Pres.; Ellen Hostetler, V. Pres.; Nancy Mees, Sec.

Playing for the Messiah and Spring Musical, plus other concerts are the activities of the Orchestra. Front Row: J. Miller (pres.), B. Clemens, M. Kyser, C. Patterson, J. Lantz (Sec.-Treas.). Back Row: J. Shetler, N. Patterson, S. Clemens, L. Naylor, P. Krauskop, C. Sauder, M. Marshall, A. Stauffer, N. Amstutz, R. Vaske.

BAND

An opportunity for those interested in instrumental music is provided by the band, which gives several concerts throughout the year. This winter members participated in a Tri-College Band Festival. Pictured: S. Raber, H. Geiger, B. Clemens, N. Patterson, D. Moyer, R. Vaske, J. Hahn, J. Purves, D. Knight, R. Linberger, C. Patterson, J. Martin, G. Lora, R. Conrad, J. Shetler, L. Joseph, L. King (Sec.-Treas.), S. Diller, R. Graber, B. Sargent, R. Gregory, G. Augsburger, P. Krouskop, F. Rower, B. Earley, J. Miller (v. pres.), M. Marshall.

THE MESSIAH

The sixty-fourth rendition of "The Messiah" was performed by the Bluffton College Choral Society on Sunday evening, December 11, 1960. The Sacred Text and the music of Handel were again instrumental in edifying and inspiring the performers as well as the audience.

The membership is composed of both college students and interested folk of the surrounding community. A total of 212 performers in the chorus and orchestra was responsible for this year's presentation.

This year marks the culmination of 31 years of conducting by Professor Russell Lantz. His service and faithful devotion to this task over this long period of time have been appreciated by the college and community. Miss Helen Martens was, for her second year, the accompanist at the piano.

Gary Lora served as Pres., and John Miller as Business Manager for this year's Choral Society.

This year's guest soloists were: Mrs. C. L. Hite, Findlay, Ohio; Loisann Oakes, Columbus, Ohio; Norman Staiger, Columbus, Ohio; Bernard Izzo, Chicago, Illinois.

Prof. Lantz conducts.

WHICH WAY THE WIND?

The cast this year included Larry Smucker as Mr. Z, Mary Steiner as Miss W, Ted Berkey as Mr. Y, Janis Lantz as Miss X, and Van Hardesty as narrator.

A repeat performance was done by the Peace Club this year as they again sponsored the production of the Docu-Drama "Which Way the Wind?" The play deals with "one of the most pressing problems facing the world today: What to do about lasting peace." The Philadelphia Inquirer described the play, following its first performance — "In a series of short interludes, flashbacks . . . , arguments with a heckler and quotations from varied sources such as newspapers, Civil War letters, articles by scientists, and Presidential statements, the author, Philip Lewis manages to put his point across like a slap in the face.

"And yet all this is not completely grim. There is humor, always intentional, and gentle endearing touches that soften the impact."

This year's cast was all new with the exception of the narrator, Van Hardesty. Directed by Christine Purves and student director Mary Jo Diller, the cast had the opportunity to meet the narrator of the first performance, Albert Bigelow. The play traveled to various places throughout Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania.

"but on the national level — well, there — if things got too bad, too disagreeable — no other choice: War!"

"I was just going to dash in there to get some Bisquick but they had a special on corned beef — "

Mr. and Mrs. David Preston of Larchmont, N. Y., are faced with problems of the effects of the atom bomb as they begin their life together.

"Ma, I'm going to enlist . . ."

"THE GIRLS IN 509"

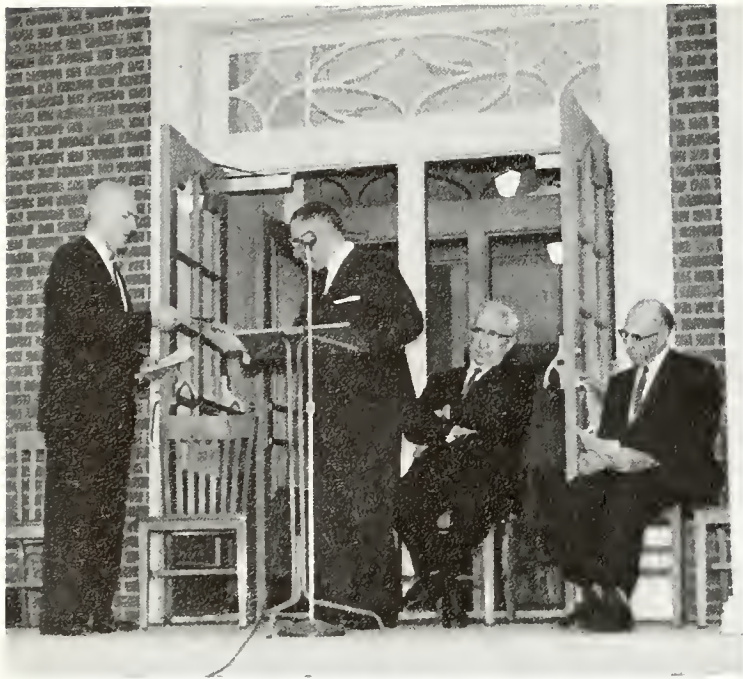

The major dramatic production of the second semester was "The Girls in 509," presented on the Founders Hall stage March 17, 18, and 20. The play, written by Howard Teichman, satirizes people engaged not only in politics, but in law, finance, theatre, and social service as well. The presentation was directed by Mrs. John Purves, with Neil Lehman as student director.

BEAVERS DO IT AGAIN!

Under the leadership of Ken Mast the Beavers again captured the championship of the MOL. Although having to share the crown with Ashland and O.N.U., the squad deserves a lot of respect and praise for a tough but successful season.

Last September our critics expected the Beavers to crumble. "This is the year Bluffton will fall," they said. When the season was over the B.C. critics found that they had made a "slight miscalculation." Although losing a squeaker to O.N.U. on Homecoming Day, the Beavers proved themselves to be real champs and came out on top once again.

In the opening conference game, Bluffton showed Defiance its might and put them to defeat. The Yellowjackets broke on top 7-0, but B. C. bounced right back with a TD, with Joe Urich at the helm. TD's by Bill Lape and Ralph Reichenbach sparked play in the second quarter. The football changed hands many times in the second half but the Beavers outscored Defiance 14-6 with Lape and Buddy Taylor hitting paydirt.

BLUFFTON STUNS ASHLAND 14 - 13

Caught.

After polishing off Defiance, the Beavers migrated to Ashland where they ran up against a real tough ball club. The game was a tightly fought battle right down to the wire with Bill Lope's 2-point conversion being the deciding factor. Ashland scored first in the second quarter, making the score 7-0. B. C. came right back with Lape racing around end for a TD. The attempt at the conversion failed. The score was still 7-6 in the third quarter when Lape again raced around end, good for 68 yards for his second TD of the evening. The speedy halfback then rounded out the scoring by plunging into the end-zone for the 2-point conversion. Final score: Bluffton 14, Ashland 13.

VICTORY !

Captain C. K. analyzes the game as he guards the water buckets.

BEAVERS ROLL PAST FINDLAY 15 - 13, AND WILMINGTON 36 - 12

In a hotly contested battle, the Beavers came from behind to edge out the Findlay College Oilers 15-8. B. C. scored in the first and fourth quarters with Bill Lape and Buddy Taylor getting the TD's.

B. C. racked up a total of 36 points against a ragged Wilmington squad to gain victory in the Beavers' last M. O. L. game of the season. The game was sparked by the fabulous running of B. Lape and B. Taylor. Taylor picked up a total of 192 yards, while Lape bulled his way for 127 yards, respectively.

So what's up?

BEAVERS LOSE FIRST LEAGUE GAME IN 4½ YEARS BY 15-13 COUNT.

Beavers roll in mass numbers.

Before a jam packed homecoming crowd, the Beavers went down to defeat at the hands of O.N.U.

The Polar Bears led off with two quick T.D.'s early in the first quarter. B.C. fought back but to no avail. Time after time the Mastmen would drive deep into O.N.U. territory only to lose the ball on fumbles. After trailing the Bears 15-0 in the second quarter, the Beavers picked up their first score when lumbering fullback John Weber barreled through the Northern defense to hit T.D. country. The Beavers' second and last T.D. came on a Ulrich to Clemens pass play after B.C. had recovered a fumble on their own 44. This time the conversion was good but Northern wound up taking the ball game 15-13.

Too late boys!

The powerful "Webes" charges through.

"...I guess a good winning habit is very hard to break — the guys just don't know the meaning of odds."

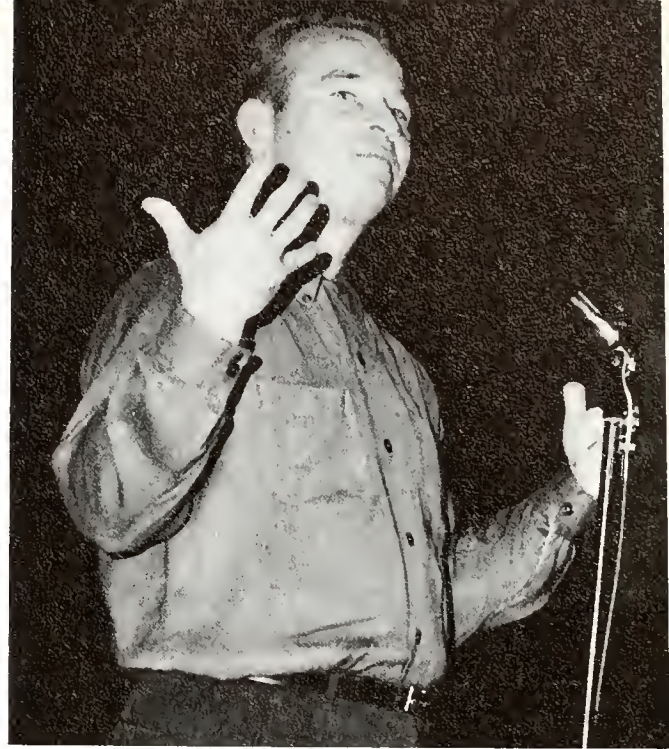

THE M.O.L. CELEBRATION

In honor of the Beavers, 1960 tri-champs of the M.O.L., the student council sponsored the M.O.L. celebration held in November, 1960. The purpose of this celebration was that "tribute and honor be bestowed upon the 1960 Bluffton College Beavers, MOL Conference Tri-Champs, and their winning coach, Ken Mast."

Speaking for the student council was its president, Ted Berkey, whose choice words expressed praise and gratitude for a job well done.

"Members of the football team, you as representatives of Bluffton College have displayed a keen winning spirit, an enviable record, and the admiration of many. We are proud of you.

"We honor you in adding a fifth consecutive championship to Bluffton College football history. You are champions; champions that have repeated. May your qualities continue to benefit your sport, your team, and your college as admirably in the future."

Mr. Mast—our football master-mind.

B. C. ENDS YEAR WITH 4-17 MARK.

The Bluffton College Beavers, once again plagued with the lack of experience, ineligibilities, and a few bad breaks, gave a performance far under their expectations.

Carl Liechty, the lone senior, along with lettermen Paul Fike and Wayne Dickason, gave the usually fine performance, but could not quite control the fire set under them by teams such as Defiance, O.N.U., and Ashland.

Once more we look into a bright future as we will have five lettermen on hand for the 1961-62 season, along with several other good upperclassmen. The league definitely is getting better, but we should show very convincingly if the prophecy is correct.

DOUBLE VICTORY OVER FINDLAY BRIGHTENS SEASON

Despite the 3-8 league record, the Beavers dumped the Findlay Oilers into the MOL cellar as they trimmed them 92-88 in an overtime, and 86-77.

Paul Fike had his best game of the campaign in the 86-77 triumph, as he poured 30 points through the hoop. Frosh Gene Gerber followed with 21, while Carl Liechty and Dave Sage added 15 and 12, respectively.

Scoring Records

THE RECAP . . .

We must agree, the year was an exciting one, despite the poor record. The near upset over O.N.U. when Liechty and Sprunger combined for 39 points, the 30 point outburst by Fike in a second victory Findlay, the initial game when we led Ashland at the half, but fell behind in the second half even though B. C. had four in double figures.

Bluffton gave very commendable performances at Wooster where they led most of the way before bowing, which was also the case against the rival Menno-nites at Goshen.

Senior Carl Liechty finished a fabulous season as he led all scorers with 418, good for a 19.9 average. His services will be greatly missed in the 1961-62 campaign.

CHEERLEADERS

WE ARE THE BEAVERS,
THE MIGHTY, MIGHTY
BEAVERS!

Six enthusiastic girls, truly dedicated to their assignment, made up the cheerleading squad this year. The spirit and team support they aroused in the student body was remarkable and worthy of much praise. The girls, four juniors and two freshmen, cheered the football and basketball teams at home and kept the boys' spirits up at many of the away games.

An organization of men who have been awarded letters in one of the six intercollegiate sports, the Men's Varsity B supports in a variety of activities the program of the Athletic Department.
